C. L. HERRING,
Manufacturer of
LIGHTNING RODS,
MILWAUKEE, WIS.
THE ANNUAL destruction of life and property by thunder storms has for years past given increased interest to the subject of Lightning Rods, and it is important that citizens should avail themselves of this means of protection for life and property.
The value and efficacy of the Lightning Rod does not consist wholly in conducting the Electric bolt from the building after it has leaped from the cloud, although this alone is sufficient to commend it to general use. Its chief value and efficacy consists in its power to prevent such explosions. It operates silently by tapping or drawing off the electric fluid from the advancing thunder cloud and thus by causing it to rise as it rolls past averting the danger. It is essential that the laws which regulate the action of the electric fluid should be duly considered, both in their construction and erection. The Rods I propose to furnish are constructed on true scientific principles. By means of screws connecting the parts together in a brass nut they are rendered as perfect as wire, and never by accident become insulated, as when they are united by hooks.
Their diameter is sufficient to conduct the greatest thunderbolt without fusion. The supports of the rod being furnished with glass insulators, all discharge of the electric fluid laterally into the house or anywhere except the earth is prevented.
It is important in order to reap the full benefit of the Lightning Rod, that they should be erected so as to distribute their points on the top of the building to be protected with due reference to the sphere of their attractive and protective power, which is generally estimated should be horizontally the distance of twice their hight.
Possessing, therefore, all the essential requisites of a truly scientific and safe conducting rod if erected so as to present a sufficient number of points, according to the extent of the building and if properly planted in the earth so as to be in no danger of becoming insulated by drought or dryness of the earth, I feel confident that my rods as well for their cheapness as their excellence, deserve and will receive general patronage.
Orders left with G. W. MYGATT, Architect, 227 East Water street, will be promptly attended to.
My Points are entirely different from any heretofore used and the purchaser can have them tested whenever he chooses to do so. mar29-d6m

Resources of the Mineral Region--Doctor Percival.

HAZEL GREEN, Oct. 15, 1853.

DEAR BROTHER:—No one who has not made a personal examination of the mineral region of Wisconsin can have any just conception of its resources and mineral wealth. No written description extant does it justice. To most persons, a mining country is associated with a rough, broken surface, and a rocky, sterile soil. But the mineral region, so far as I have seen it, is unsurpassed for beauty and variety of scenery and for fertility of soil, and its mineral wealth is exhaustless. The earth thrown up from the depth of a hundred feet at once produces a luxuriant vegetation, and the mines have only been worked to the water, while the richest portion of the mines, owing to the want of capital, have not yet been touched.

I found here, in this quiet village, Dr. Jas. G. Percival, the scholar, poet and geologist. He has been here during the past summer, exploring the mineral resources of this region, under the auspices of the American Mining Company, who contemplate erecting works on a large scale, and employing steam engines to drain the mines, and enable them to penetrate to a far greater depth, if Dr. Percival's report is favorable. This Company have already one engine at work at Fair Play, five miles west of here. Dr. Percival expressed to me his surprise at the fertility of the soil, and the exhaustless quantity of ore. He said that nothing which had been written in regard to the mining region of Wisconsin had given him any adequate idea of the boundless resources of wealth contained here. I sincerely wish he could be appointed State Geologist, at least for a year or two, in connection with Prof. Daniels.—His great practical knowledge of Geology, as well as his scientific attainments, would be of valuable service to this State. His report of the Geology of Connecticut—every square mile of which he traversed in person—is a monument to his industry and attainments.

We had a very large meeting here, and the impression made upon the people was most happy. No notice had been given of our meeting when we arrived in the village, at 2 P. M., but Mr. Dorman sent a boy on horseback to publish the tidings, and the people responded most heartily. Mr. Dorman and family treated us with great kindness.

We divided our forces the next day, and Mrs. Fowler spoke in the evening at Potosi, and was most cordially received. Mrs. Nichols and myself spoke at Platteville. At both places we had crowded houses, and the best wishes of the people for their success.

At Lancaster we received a hearty welcome, and had a fine audience. One drunken man responded amen frequently, but that was the only argument from that side of the house. There is an excellent Temperance Hotel kept here by Mr. Wood. J. F. Mills, Esq., is very active in the Temperance cause, and is lecturing through the county in behalf of the Maine Law.

MINERAL POINT, Oct. 19, 1853.

Our meeting here last evening was crowded to overflowing. At least a thousand people were present, and many went away unable to get admission. The Catholic clergyman here, Rev. Mr. O'Connor, is a very ardent Temperance man. He not only read the notice of our meeting in his church, but he exhorted his people to attend. Messrs. Bliss & Chaney, of the Tribune, take a very warm interest in the Temperance cause, and are doing much in its behalf. Our thanks are due them and others here for their kindness and hospitality.

A Maine Law Mass Convention held here yesterday, nominated John Toay for Assemblyman, and he will doubtless be elected.—He is an upright, straight-forward man, and represented this district in the Legislature two years ago.

To-night we go to Dodgeville.

S. M. B.

MR. McMYNN.—We place the name of JOHN G. McMYNN, of Kenosha, under our head of nominations, for the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, Mr. Bartlett, our candidate, having formally declined in his favor. We have heard of but one expression in regard to Mr. McMynn, and that is of his entire fitness for the station. He has long been an efficient teacher, and possesses, in an eminent degree, all the qualities for the faithful performance of the duties of the office. We hope he will be elected.

New Rum Organ.

The editor of the Monroe Sentinel swallows Mr. Barstow's double-faced letter—concocted to deceive and mislead Temperance men—with childlike simplicity, and vainly attempts to show that it is all that Temperance Democrats can ask for to satisfy them that he is right on the "Maine Law" question. The Sentinel forgets to tell its readers that Mr. Barstow believes the Maine Law wrong in principle, and that any enactment suppressing the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage is a violation of the dearest rights of man, and of course unconstitutional. This is the position Mr. B. will occupy if elected Governor; and if promoted to that office by Temperance men, they will eventually have occasion to regret their action.

When the editor of the Sentinel affirms that Mr. Barstow's communication is satisfactory to Temperance men, he asserts what he knows to be an unqualified falsehood.

The editor of the Sentinel also labors thro' half a column in reply to an article in the Free Democrat. It attempts to be exceedingly sharp, but virtually admits that we gave a truthful history of his past political life and conduct; though he says we have drawn the picture several times before. This is the first time, we believe, that he has acknowledged the correctness of the delineation, and it ought now to be framed and suspended in a public place, as a warning to traitors to humanity for all time to come.

The Sentinel still insists that the resolution passed by the Democratic Convention in favor of free trade, &c., has no reference to the liquor traffic, and sets us down as opposed to the principles of free trade, free speech, free religion, &c., because we said that resolution was senseless, save on the interpretation that it was intended to endorse the liquor traffic. The editor of the Sentinel knows well that we did not object to the resolution when correctly interpreted, but to the construction which was known to be put upon it by its movers. Those who lost or attempted to suppress the resolution, understood most clearly its meaning. Has any other State Convention passed a resolution of like import, since Wisconsin became a State? And is the editor of the Sentinel green enough to suppose that this free-trade resolution does not contemplate free and unstricted trade in liquor?

When the Sentinel sets us down as against free trade, free speech, &c., for our remarks on that resolution, it knowingly and willfully misrepresents us. Fairness, however, is not to be expected from a contemporary who has fallen, step by step, until he has become a servile and unscrupulous tool, ready and anxious to perform the most menial drudgery that his party may require for its own advancement. One such sheet as the Sentinel will do more to perpetuate the liquor traffic and its catalogue of concomitant evils, than all the open advocates of the rum interest in the State combined.

Aid to the Milwaukee & Watertown R. R.

On Monday next the electors of this city will be called upon to decide by vote whether Milwaukee, in its corporate capacity, will extend aid to the M. & W. R. R., or not. It is an important question, and ought to draw out a full vote. The act of the Legislature, authorizing the city to vote on this question, provides that the total amount of the city loan in aid of this enterprise shall not exceed $200,000, of which only $75,000 can be expended between this city and Watertown. We believe it is right and expedient for Milwaukee to aid in the construction of all railroad enterprises, which are calculated to advance her interests by increasing her trade. In all cases, however, the city should require ample and undoubted security. To this, R. R. companies, receiving city bonds to aid their enterprises, cannot, of course, object. The speedy completion of a railroad to Watertown is highly important, and will add much to the activity and prosperity of our city, and we consider it wise policy for the city to lend its aid, if necessary, in a reasonable amount for the attainment of so desirable an object. The enterprise is progressing rapidly, and is under the control of men of efficiency and unquestionable ability.

Declination of Whig Nominees.

The greater portion of the nominees of the Whig party, for State officers, have now formally declined, in favor of a People's Ticket. The list already embraces Messrs. Pinkney, Hadley, Maxwell, and Cole, with the names of two or three others whose declension is in the hands of their friends but not yet made public.

Mr. Baird is the only one who, against the wishes of nine tenths of the Whig party, persists in running on that ticket. And the reason is more apparent why he persists in such a course, when we understand his real motive to be the election of Mr. Barstow!—A man who has avowed his intention to "leave the State if the Maine Law was triumphant here," of course could not be expected to do so wise and judicious a thing as to decline in favor of a People's candidate, who is known to be right on that subject.—His love for the triumph of his party, is truly magnanimous, when he reflects that he does not stand half the chance of being elected that he does of being struck by lightning on a cloudless day. He certainly stands no chance unless the pathos of the Wisconsin in his behalf should bring over to his support a large proportion of Mr. Barstow's friends.

☞ Thomas J. Doughty has been nominated as a people's candidate for the Assembly in the southeast district of Fond du Lac Co. He is a Maine Law man.

R. P. Eaton is the people's candidate for the Assembly in the northeast district of the same county.

☞ Truman L. Smith is the hunker candidate for the Assembly in the 2d district of Waukesha Co.

To the Electors of Wisconsin.

The following appropriate and pertinent appeal to the voters of Wisconsin, to perform their duty firmly and faithfully at the approaching election, is an extract from Mrs. Bloomer's address at Metropolitan Hall, last evening.

"Electors of Wisconsin! in your approaching election you have a double duty to perform—You have not only to elect Legislators who are to act upon this question, but you are at the same time to give a direct expression of your opinions in reference to it through the ballot box. As I am informed, your legislature has submitted to you this plain and simple question, whether you will, or will not have a prohibitory liquor law in this young and growing State. I believe it is the first time that the question has ever been submitted to the people in advance of any legislation on the subject; and the fact that it is thus submitted to you, is but another evidence of the extreme timidity with which legislators approach the discussion of any great measure of real progress and reform. But I earnestly hope that your verdict will render certain the triumph of Maine Law legislation in Wisconsin. Could I say anything more than I have already said in aid of so glorious a subject, how gladly would that duty be performed! But I feel that it is unnecessary for me to say more—you cannot fail to be convinced of the solemn responsibilities resting upon you, and of the momentous consequences which are to flow from your decision.

If you decide against the law of prohibition and protection, then the flood-gates of misery and crime will be opened wide upon your people! Then will there be rejoicing among all that large army who fatten and flourish upon the misfortunes, and the ruin of their fellow men! But while such will rejoice, remember that there will be sorrow and mourning among the unfortunate victims of their unholy gain! The needy and the destitute—The widow and the fatherless—the oppressed and the down trodden—made such by the unhallowed influences of rum, will lament in agony of heart the triumph of their great destroyer!

As you would save those from their terrible fate—as you would save others from going down the same broad road to ruin—as you value your own happiness, and the happiness of those near and dear to you, I beseech you, men of Wisconsin, to give your voice and your votes on the side of justice and right!"

THE WAR QUESTION.—The London News, of the 27th ult., says that the efforts of Austria to borrow money at London, Amsterdam, Frankfort, &c., have been unsuccessful, and therefore Austria is anxious for continued peace, because she cannot afford to fight. It also says, that, owing to the number of desertions, the Russian cavalry had been withdrawn two marches from the Danube, and their place supplied by Cossacks. Omer Pacha rewarded every deserter from the Russians, but prudently sent them all inland. The moslem population ardently desire war, and avow that they will not yield in anything, unless forced to by France and England.

COLLISION.—A passenger and construction train came in collision on Tuesday, on the Illinois Central Railroad, in the vicinity of Kankakee. It was foggy at the time, and the two trains could not see each other.—The cars were considerably injured, but no one was killed, although several were considerably bruised.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—We invite public attention to the advertisement of Henry Freeman, manufacturer of boots and shoes. He does his work upon honor, we know from experience and can therefore conscientiously recommend him as eminently worthy of public patronage.

☞ "Grace Greenwood," the popular authoress, was married at new Brighton, on the 15th. Mr. Lippincott, the gentleman to whom she was united, is a resident of Washington city, and a writer for the National Era.

☞ W. H. Smith, of Dodge county, writes to the Beaver Dam Republican that he has this season harvested from less than a bushel of seed, eighty bushels of fine potatoes.

☞ The most striking case of moral turpitude is related by the Lantern. One of the prisoners being conveyed to Sing Sing said his brother was a New York Alderman, and he wasn't ashamed to own it.

GIRDLING FRUIT TREES.—Mr. Bogert, of Beaver Dam, offers a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of some malicious persons who entered his garden on the night of the 10th, and girdled his fruit trees.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The highest compliment the Beaver Dam Republican can pay its candidate for the Senate, E. B. Bowen, is to affirm that his "Democracy is of the New Hampshire stripe." That's suffiicent.

☞ The La Crosse Democrat tells big stories about farmers in that country raising 100 and 115 bushels of oats to the acre. It also states that one farmer has raised on one fourth of an acre 93 bushels of onions.

THE MAINE LAW IN OHIO.—The returns indicate the defeat of the law, the southern part of the State giving a large majority against it, while the northern part voted for it. So Ohio is to be cursed with "free trade in liquor" another year.

☞ Henry M. Rice, union candidate, has been elected Delegate to Congress from Minnesota Territory, by an ovewhelming majority.

☞ Edward Beeuer, Democratic candidate for the Assembly in the southeast district of Fond du Lac Co., is on both sides of the liquor question. To temperance men, he represents himself as being favorable to the Maine Law, while he tells the liquorites that he is opposed to it. We do not believe that such duplicity and double-dealing can triumph.

☞ A Cricket Match recently played at Pittsburg between the Cleveland and Pittsburg Clubs, resulted in the triumph of the Pittsburg boys.

☞ Albert T. Colburn, of Jefferson, is the Whig nominee for Assembly in the 3d district of Jefferson Co.

ASSEMBLY.—B. F. Barney is the democratic candidate for the Assembly, in the First Assembly district of Dodge county.

☞ The Circuit Court for Racine county is in session at Racine—Judge Spooner presiding.

☞ The fall term of the Fond du Lac Co. Circuit Court will commence on Monday next.

STEAMERS BURNED.—Three steamboats —the Montauk, Robert Campbell and Lunette—were burnt while lying at the wharf at St. Louis last Thursday, 13th inst. The fire orignated with the Montauk, and spread so rapidly that the officers and crew escaped with difficulty to the shore. Several passengers on the R. Campbell, also escaped with difficulty. One passenger was seriously burnt in saving his trunk, which was stolen after he brought it ashore. The boats bad all heavy cargoes, and were on the eve of leaving for the upper rivers.

ACCIDENT.—A young man by the name of Soule in the town of Leroy, while at work on a Threshing Machine a few days since, met with a severe injury. He was caught in the machinery and his foot and ancle so crushed that amputation was necessary. His leg was amputated by Dr. T. S. Wright of this city, and he is now recovering.—Fond du Lac Herald.

Dodge County Woolen Mills.—These Mills are now in full blast, and are doing an excellent business. Mr. Stewart, is a thorough going business man, and is determined to do something for his country. He is bringing in a lot of splendid blooded bucks, which our farmers will do well to engage before they are all gone.—Beaver Dam Rep.

Another large Fountain.—Mr. Higgs has succeeded in obtaining a large supply of water from another artesian well.—Fond du Lac Herald.

There are thirty-five applicants for the Post Mastership at Lowell Mass., that office having become vacant by the death of the recent incumbent.

It is said Secretary Guthrie, in 1843 or 1844, wrote a very strong Native American letter.

A Farewell Reply.

Editor Free Democrat—

Mr. C. calls Alcohol a poison, and also says it is decomposed, and its elements are not poison. Clear as mud. He also gives a quotation from Liebig, (which I furnished him, giving at the same time mine and others views of the passage,) with his exposition, and which, put alongside of my quotation from Liebig, makes the author contradict himself! Transparent as charcoal. Eminent chemical authority says that Alcohol is produced only by fermentation (not from sound "ripe apples"), one stage of decay. Mr. C. does not. Agreed; free country, Mr. C.

Mr. McArthur did say, repeatedly, that Alcohol was not a poison. Mr. C. says both, that it is, and it is not. I do not demur at such a view of the case. Mr. C. very unceremoniously kicks me and my authorities out of doors, calling the latter "supremely ridiculous." "How we stones swim!" I, of course, must retreat, and will try, "like immortal Cæsar, to die with decency."

Farewell, Mr. C. "Ex nihilo nihil fit."

Mrs. Bloomer's Lecture Last Night.

As everybody and his family were there last evening, we shall not attempt to give any further notice of the Lecture than that the lady acquitted herself to the satisfaction of all present. Never have we seen such a perfect sea of upturned faces, at Metropolitan Hall as we saw last evening, and hundreds went away without being able to find admittance. The almost breathless silence that reigned throughout that large assembly, attested the interest felt in those burning words of truth as they fell from Woman's lips, clothed in all the modesty, dignity and fervor of Woman's eloquence. The impression left upon the hearts of the hundreds present, we can but hope will be beneficial, and stimulate many to action who have hitherto stood aloof.

It will be seen that Mrs. Bloomer has consented to deliver one more lecture in this city—subject, "Woman's Rights and Woman's Wrongs." As this is more particularly her great inspiring theme, we shall confidently expect something decidedly captivating and enticing in her Lecture this evening.

☞ Mr. NILES, Editor of the State Temperance League, and Mr. Earll, associate Editor of the Western Temperance Advocate, made some thrilling appeals at Metropolitan Hall last evening, in behalf of a Prohibitory Liquor Law.

Smash up on the M. & M. Railroad.

The freight train from the West this morning, when about two miles the other side of Wauwatosa, ran over a bull, who, we suppose, defiantly placed himself upon the track anticipating an easy victory over the iron horse. The locomotive—the Milwaukee—and three of the cars, heavily loaded with produce, were smashed in pieces. No one was hurt save the engineer, who sprained his ankle considerably by jumping off the train.

John Berchel, of the 2d Ward, was bro't up this morning on charge of having committed an assault on Christoph Bauer, last night, but was discharged after two witnesses had testified, it being quite apparent that he was less guilty than the complainant.

Three more complaints have been lodged against Chas. Mallon, who was committed on Tuesday night for stealing lumber—one by John Colgate, for burglary and larceny—another by Durand & Lawrence, for larceny, and the third by T. Littell for a like offense.

Murder on board the Garden City!

About 7 o'clock on Thursday evening, while the Garden City was lying at the pier, two firemen got into an affray, and during the struggle one of them drew a dirk and severed the jugular vein of the other, by the name of Doyle, killing him instantly.—The scene occurred at Ozaukee. The murderer was arrested by officer Sibbils.

A LIBERAL ACT.—Yesterday morning, at Waukesha, Mr. Merrill, Conductor on the M. & M. Rail Road, found a family of Emigrants, who had landed at this port from the Sultana, last Saturday night, and lost everything they had, by the disastrous fire on Higby's Pier, except only the clothes they wore. They were anxious to get on father west, but had not the means to pay their fare. So Mr. Merrill, satisfied of the truth of their story, gave them a free passage as far as Milton. Not content with this, he passed around the hat among the passengers on his train, and succeeded in collecting $26,-00, which he handed over to these poor Emigrants. —Sentinel.

Robbery of a Methodist Clergyman.—We understand that a Methodist Clergyman—we have not learned his name—was robbed yesterday near the town line of Verona about six miles from this place, on the Green Co. road. He was riding in a buggy, and overtook a footman, apparently a German, who requested to ride. After proceeding together for a short distance, while passing through a small piece of woods, the stranger struck the Clergyman with a stone which he had concealed about his person somewhere, with such violence as to knock him out of the buggy, and leave him senseless. In this condition the ruffian robbed him of sixty dollars, and left. The Clergyman recovered sufficiently to proceed on his way; and the robber has not yet been apprehended.—Madison Jour.

☞ A soldier was asked if he met with much hospitality in Mexico, replied, "Oh, yes, too much; I was in the hospital almost all the time I was there."

Speech of Hon. John P. Hale,

Delivered at the Ratification Meeting, held at the Broadway Tabernacle, in New York City, on the evening of the 11th inst.

Now in the nineteenth century, after the great principles we assert have had their eighteen centuries of martyrs, it is time they should begin to exercise some influence.—Can we not discover a great purpose of Providence manifested in the discovery of this Continent? Should we not see that it is time that the light which, like a pillar of fire kindled by the hand of God, led our fathers through a seven years' Revolution, should illumine some of the world beyond our limits? Should not the nations of the Old World, struggling against despotism, receive from this Continent some light to guide them on the glorious pathway of Revolution? It would seem, if this land is to go forth and breathe a manly word in behalf of liberty, the leaders of the people ought to be the first to give it utterance. (Loud cheers.) And why do they not do so? What do you hear from your Government? What are they doing? Are they studying, consulting, contriving, to give efficacy to the great principles upon which this republic has been founded?—to make republican liberty felt, acknowledged, and effective everywhere? Let us take an answer from the letter of Secretary Guthrie to Collector Bronson, and what do we read? That the mighty energies of our Government are, night and day, exerted to see that the Hards and Softs get their fair share of the Custom House plunder! (Laughter.) They have no time—they cannot give attention to weightier things. From the moment of their inauguration there is no single policy in which their course has been distinctly marked, except this in which Secretary Guthrie says: "It is understood the President and his Cabinet are united,"—namely, that the Softs are to have a fair chance at the Custom House?—Now, I do not want to say anything to offend your sensibilities; I am myself an American also; but I ask, Are you not ashamed of yourselves? (Laughter.) The Government of the United States has no higher purpose than to fairly divide tide-waterships and so forth!

Surely there are some other questions which ought to be interesting to our Government, and when Secretary Guthrie has well disposed of this important division of spoils which has so occupied him, if he will take up the public documents of the U. States (that is, after the fair partition is fully accomplished,) he will find for example, that the United States owns more than five hundred million acres of land, enough to give to every family within the borders of the States a homestead of more than 80 acres. He will find, should the fires of Revolution be kindled again in Europe, and despotism once more prove too strong for the efforts of liberty, when the contest was over, the victims of oppression might come here by tens of thousands, and yet we could provide them all with farms! [Loud cheers.] Laboring men of New-York, is not that of more consequence than the division of Custom-House plunder? hundreds of millions of acres, as fertile as any that have rewarded the toil of man since he was first created by Providence! Should this land be given to me, to till it, or should it be locked up, generation after generation, to swell the profits of bloated speculators?—other questions might engage the Secretary; free postage; law; ocean postage; the opening of a highway by which the affections of millions of hearts might travel the waste of waters! Now, if the party I am associated with can do nothing else, we can look these questions in the face. We are for free farms; land lies a wilderness; we would make it of inestimable value. There are still other questions of high moment which might occupy a government of these States—that of liberty abroad! But I think the Government should not open their mouths upon that—they should keep an oyster-like silence. Why? Because the platform to which they are pledged finds them——as you shall see. I will read you the eleventh Resolution of the Democratic Convention of June 1, 1852, at Baltimore. (Mr. H. read it.) Here, you see, they say, that in view of the popular institutions of the Old World, a high and sacred duty devolves on us—what to do? To give the right hand of fellowship to those struggling for freedom? No indeed; but, "to uphold and maintain the rights of every State!" That was the high and sacred duty which devolved on the Democratic party, the party of the people—to take care of themselves! (Boisterous merriment.) A high sounding preamble costs very little; therefore they talk of the "interests of the Old World," and their "high and sacred duty;" people perhaps would only read the preamble, and not generally know the important conclusion—to take care of themselves. Yes! In view of these "popular institutions of the Old World" Kossuth came here, told the story of his country's wrongs, her desolate homes, the wanderers driven from them, and asked a single word of sympathy and encouragement. Did the Government give it? No! Their "high and sacred duty" was to look sharply after State rights. The battle for Freedom waxed hot; the friends of liberty were trodden down; did the Government open its mouth? No! Why? Because, if they sent to any despot of the Old World a note of indignant remonstrance, it might reverberate back and put an echo in some slave-hut of the New! [Loud and long applause.] And so it will ever be, as long as the institution of Slavery presses, like the Old Man of the Sea, upon the shoulders of every holder of, and candidate for, a public office in our land. It is said that we are a part of an idea. Well, this other perhaps have one; but the only one they have clearly exemplified is that of "dividing the spoils fairly between the Hards and the Softs." And when we view the Fugitive Slave Law, and their professions based upon it, must we not conclude that the great standard of fidelity to Republicanism is the zeal and alacrity with which a republic can contend with Southern bloodhounds in capturing a man who fled to save his freedom? Is not this a fact? Is not the principle adhered to throughout? Let there be a candidate for a Judgeship, let him be wise as Solomon, just as Aristides, second in eloquence only to Him who spoke as never other mortal lips than His can speak, and are not his qualifications naught, unless he can stoop so low as to be willing to become a negro-catcher? * * * * * *

A great destiny is before us: we are to solve, on this Continent, the World's question. The history of man is that of oppressed struggling against oppressor; a tyrant is subdued, but another takes his place; and it seems as if we could read in the counsels of Eternity that God would no longer be tried with us. Then the friends of Liberty plead with Heaven, "Give man another trial!" and the All-wise con- [illegible] a way over the world of [illegible] land appears, where a Temple of Liberty may be erected, with doors flung open to the oppressed of the earth. [Long continued cheers.] But the serpent envied the happiness of Eden, and the arch enemy of our race mars the second handiwork of the Most High; he sends Slavery to curse the fairest work of creation. Shall his malice succeed? [Cries of No, No.] It may or not; the issue is with you. Liberty or Slavery must give way; they are antagonistic, and cannot exist together. [Applause.] Now, we only ask you to labor within the Constitution. We have sworn allegiance to it; and, even for that reason, our first duty is to relieve it from its foulest aspersion—Slavery! [Tremendous cheers.] The men who made our Constitution did not intend Slavery—they held their peace about it—they looked forward to the time when it would die out, and leave the Constitution uncontaminated with its name, to the time when the parchment on which this was written might be fit to have traced on it the Charter of Freedom. Slavery is a parody on the Constitution, a disgrace to the civilization of the age. I merely say now what I said on the floor of the Senate, when the infamous Fugitive Bill was passed. I call it not a law, and never will. "It has no obligation on me, nor on my conscience." I shall now conclude. [Loud cries of go on!] If I must go on, I will present you with a picture.—By this Bill, if the Commissioner find the person claimed to be described in the paper held by the claimant, he must hand that person over.

Suppose a slave, nearly white, (as advertisements show some slaves are, so nearly that they try to escape as white,) flies, and, to aid escape, takes a horse. The owner gets both horse and woman described in his papers; he comes, say, to New-York, meets his horse (as he asserts) drawing a dray, demands it of the owner, who says "Why!" "Oh! here it is described in this paper." But the owner says, "You must wait; you can't take my horse without trial by jury."

Suppose he gets the horse? then say you are the owner. He next comes and says, pointing to your daughter, "I must have her too." "Why?" "She is described here, in this paper." And so she may be. A horse thief was apprehended in South Carolina, and in his pocket was found a letter from a confederate in Philadelphia, desiring him to send papers describing suspicious negroes there, whom he would send on to him as slaves. Now, horses cannot be taken out of the State of New-York without trial by jury—women can! [Deafening cheers.]—Your daughter is described—you are in dismay—you talk of jury trial, but he says "you go too fast." You fly to a lawyer—he hears your case—with commiseration tells you that, in 1850, there was much trouble; the Union was in great danger.—[Laughter.] Patriots saved it, at a compromise—had to throw in trial by jury for women. He tells you, "it is rather hard, but then they saved the Union!" [Renewed laughter.] Do not tell me of a Union! Let the purest and holiest feelings of humanity be saved, then, if you can, go and save your Union! [Great applause.] Let the union which binds a father to his child be saved—if the other cannot be also saved, let it be lost, the sooner the better. But this is the only point of public policy on which we are told the President and his Cabinet are united! We are told not to agitate. Agitation is necessary in nature, animate as well as inanimate. The heart which sustains my life is agitated; when it is not, I perish.—The ocean has been ever agitated, since, in the dawn of creation, the Almighty formed it out of the hollow of His hand. And the pool of which we read in Holy Writ, when at rest, had no virtue—when agitated, healed whosoever went down into it. But these politicians do not wish to have it agitated; for them there is no healing. It is error alone that fears agitation. [Loud and long applause.] I do not speak to a party—I speak to each one here as a man. Party knows but one law—"Vote the regular ticket." I ask each man here to go forth among his neighbors and spread abroad the truth which he knows. Victory may not be ours; we have no Custom-House spoils to distribute—this year. [Laughter.] But we have self-respect—we have consciences. And if we can do no more, at least, as my eloquent young friend from Massachusetts said, we can free ourselves. If we cannot bring others help, through our efforts, at least we will know that when the God of the oppressed deals with this nation as he has dealt with those, which, before us, have been guilty of the sin of oppression, we can, in that day of dread account, stand unblenched before the Home of Eternity, and call upon the Lamb of Hearts to witness that the guilt and blood of oppression do not stain the hem of our garments!

Mr. Hale took his seat amid loud and long-continued applause.

STEAMBOAT DECISION.—The following decision was made in the District Court of New York:

OCT. 10—John W. Underhill vs. James McCullough, and others.—This action is brought to recover the value of a carpet bag and contents, placed on board the steamboat Francis Skiddy, owned by the defendants, at Newburgh, on which the plantiff was a passenger from that place bound to New York, and lost or never delivered to plaintiff. The plaintiff proved that his wife took and paid her passage from Newburgh to New York, and that she placed her carpet bag, containing certain wearing apparel to the value of between $40 and $50, in the possesion of a person having charge of the baggage on board the boat, and who gave his card at the time of receiving it—that on arriving at the city of New York they ascertained that the carpet bag had been lost.

The defendant's counsel contended that they were not liable, inasmuch as the plaintiff had entrusted his baggage to the care of a person who had given his card, and that plantiff must look to him for its loss.

The Judge decided that the defendants were liable; that they could not relieve themselves from liability by permitting persons employed on board of their boats to furnish passengers with cards, and gave judgment for plaintiff for $46 damages and costs.

☞ In England the amount of damages for juries on railroads is graduated by the amount of the income enjoyed by the persons killed or injured at the time of the accident. At a recent trial of a suit brought against the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railroad Company, by the executor of a gentleman who was killed on the road, in consequence of a train in which he was traveling, running off the track, a verdict of £3,000 or $15,000, was given.

"Potomac," the Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot, says that a strong and systematic effort will be made to place [illegible] Speaker's Chair of the [illegible] House of Representatives.

Holloway's Pills, an effectual cure for Dropsy.—Extract of a letter from Mr. W. Tomlinson, of Bangor, dated May 1, 1851.—"To Professor Holloway—Sir,—For several years I was severely afflicted with dropsy; at times my feet and legs were so much swollen that I was unable to walk. I consulted many doctors, and tried remedy after remedy, with hopes of obtaining relief, but I was disappointed in all, until I tried your invaluable Pills, which I gratefully acknowledge have been the sole means of effecting a cure of my complaint, and I am now in the enjoyment of excellent health." oc19 1w

Professor Alex. C. Barry's Tricopherous, or Medicated Compound, for beautifying, improving and preserving the hair, curing cuts, bruises, burns, stings, rheumatism, and all irritations of the skin. A preparation, the sale of which amounts to one million of bottles annually, would seem to need no advertisement; but as the thousands who purchase, use, and approve of it, have probably no idea of the enormous extent of the business done by Professor Barry, he gives herewith a plain statement of facts derived from his books, and with them tenders his earnest and hearty thanks to his innumerable patrons.

Professor Barry's accounts of sales for the year 1852, show that during that year about 940,000 bottles of his Tricopherous were disposed of, and that the cash product of this immense sale was nearly $100,000.

This plain, unvarnished tale is a better commentary on the value of the article than anything its inventor could say. If it were not peerless in its effect upon the hair—if it were not invaluable as a household remedy, for cuts, bruises, burns, skin diseases &c.—it would not, of course, be so universally in demand. The wealthy portion of the public would buy it any price, but Professor Barry has reduced it to a figure so low that the poorest can avail themselves of its benefits.

Sold in large bottles (price 25 cents,) at wholesale and retail, at the manufactory and depot, 137 Broadway, and by the principal merchants and druggists throughout the United States and Canada, Mexico, West Indies, Great Britain, France, &c.

HEALTH FOR THE STATES!!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS!

Extraordinary Cure of loss of Health, Disordered Stomach, Indigestion and Determination of Blood to the Head.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Loyd, of Erw-wen, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

SIR,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimmings in the head, attended by a loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills, I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper.

I am, Sir, your obedient Servant,
June 6th, 1852. (Signed) JOHN LLOYD.

Miraculous Cure of Dropsy.

Extract of a Letter from Edward Rowley, Esq., of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, DROPSY, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skilfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured, until I had recourse to your remedy, and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks.

(Signed) EDWARD ROWLEY.

Infallible Cure of a Stomach Complaint with Indigestion and Violent Head-Aches.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton, near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY,

DEAR SIR—I am requested by a lady named Thomas, just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years, herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, Indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head Aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.

(Signed) S. GOWEN.

THE CITIZENS of Milwaukee are cautioned against purchasing LIGHTNING RODS from transient pedlars who are now flooding this city—making false representations in order to effect sales and giving G. W. CITY AUCTION ROOM.

WELL, the BARNUM HUMBUG has been exhibited, and we are all satisfied with it, and we will have to be satisfied with whatever is presented before us; for what else is there in this cold, miserable world, but Humbugs? Lawyers are Humbugs, Doctors are Humbugs, Bankers are Humbugs, Merchants are Humbugs, Auctioneers would try to be Humbugs, and in fact every thing is a Humbug, with two exceptions, viz: Handsome Ladies and a group of small Children, are the only realities we have in this world. Now, I have no fault to find, nor do I care what any one says, for there is no friend so near and dear to you as yourself, and all you should wish of that friend is to do right. Now, I again call your attention to this STOCK OF DRY GOODS, amounting to about Ten Thousand Dollars, which I now offer to any one on 6, 12, or 18 months without any interest, at what they cost.—Real Estate security will be taken. To any one who wants to go into the Dry Goods Trade, here is an opportunity that seldom offers.
